

Jesus

Draw zig-zag lines from the words at the top, starting with 'Their', to the words at the bottom to find out what is being said. Then do the same from side to side, starting with 'But'. The first lines have been done for you.

| | | | | | | |
|------|-------|--------|-------|--------|------|---------|
| | Their | dull | with | they | eyes | |
| | has | barely | ears | closed | | |
| But | | | | | | blessed |
| are | | | | | | your |
| eyes | | | | | | because |
| they | | | | | | see |
| and | | | | | | your |
| ears | | | | | | because |
| they | | | | | | hear |
| | heart | They | their | have | | |
| | grown | hear | and | their | | |

Draw a line representing growing corn from each of the four types of ground at the bottom to the top of the puzzle passing through the correct phrases on the way. You could add leaves and corn to the corn growing in good soil.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| no plant at all | no fruit | a lot of good fruit | no fruit |
| someone who hears about the kingdom but doesn't understand | someone who hears about the kingdom but has worries and riches | someone who hears about the kingdom with joy but it only lasts a short time | someone who hears about the kingdom and understands |
| the seed was eaten | the plants were scorched and they withered | the plants were smothered | the plants grew |
| not enough soil | birds | no problem | thorns grew up |
|  path |  rocks |  thorns |  good soil |