

Bread from heaven, Water from the rock

Can you help the Israelites get to Marah?

You must pick up a piece of wood on the way to make the water sweet.

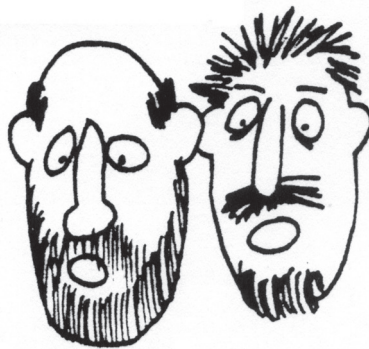

In this passage some of the letters have been missed out and there are no full stops or spaces between the words. Can you work out what it says?

Who said that?

Match the words to the speakers and put the conversation in order.

see Exodus 17
v 1-4

Why
do you
quarrel
with me?

Give us
water to drink

Why you put
the Lord to the test?

Why did you bring us out of Egypt to die in this desert?

What am I going to do, Lord?
They're
ready to stone me

The donkey that spoke

Look at Numbers 22

When the people of Moab heard the Israelites were coming they were very (v3). So Balak the (v4) of Moab sent for Balaam to (v6) Israel (or put a spell on them). God said to Balaam, '.....' (v12). But Balaam went on his donkey. GOD was (v22) and sent his (v22) which stood in the donkey's way. The angel had (v23) and the donkey turned off the road. Balaam
. (v23). Next time the angel stood in the way, the donkey
..... (v25). Balaam (v25) again. Next time the angel stood in the way the donkey
..... (v27). Balaam again (v27). Then the donkey !! (v30). She told Balaam she wouldn't have behaved like that without a reason. Then Balaam saw the angel.
