START

we drew this line to start you off

Solomon turned his heart away from the Lord, who became angry and said one of your servants but for the sake of David and Jerusalem I will do this after

"I will give your kingdom to you die and will leave your son one tribe

FINISH

Lesson 57 - Now something harder ...

This map is the same scale as the one in lesson 53. Notice how the kingdom has begun to shrink.

The border of the kingdom of David and Solomon was around here blue kingdom of red kingdom of

Two tribes followed Rehoboam.
Which two? 1 Kings 12 v 21.

Colour them red on the map.

That left ten tribes for Jeroboam.

Colour them blue on the map and finish the key.

Write the names of the tribes on the pieces of the coat which Ahijah tore up. Simeon has been written in already because they did not have any territory of their own and were scattered amongst the other tribes.

Why do you think Rehoboam took the young men's advice?
Do you sometimes think that old people's advice is boring?
Remember, they often know best.
Pray to God that you will take the best advice when it's given.
