

The Widow of Nain

All the words beginning with the letters 'S' and 'T' have been left out of this story. They are all below, in the boxes. Can you fit them in?

One day Jesus a very As he was coming into city, a funeral procession was passing by. A young man had died and his mother was crying. Her husband was already dead and now her only was dead too. Jesus was very her upset. He walked up body of young man was on and looked at him. people who were following funeral were quite him do as people didn't usually come close dead bodies. But when Jesus and young man up were absolutely amazed ! mother was overjoyed ! Her who knew had been dead was alive and and all people who happen knew Jesus was by God.

Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life"

Lesson 90 - Now something harder ...

He had compassion

His heart went out to her.

Two ways of saying how Jesus felt for the widow in Nain. Write your own words in the third box.

Here are some other Parents Jesus wanted to help.

Read the verses then try to match them to the conversations.

Jesus: Mother, from now on you will have a new son.
John, from now on you will look after my mother for me.

Father: My son has epilepsy and sometimes it hurts him terribly.
Disciples: We weren't able to help.
Father: If you can help us, please do.
Jesus: Everything is possible if you believe.

Luke 8 v 49 – 55
Matthew 15 v 22 – 28
John 19 v 25 – 27
Mark 9 v 17 – 24

Jairus: My daughter is dead.
Jesus: She is not dead. She is just sleeping. I shall wake her. Now give her something to eat. She will be hungry.

Mother: My little daughter has something wrong with her which I don't understand.
Jesus: I can't help you because you are not one of the people of Israel.
Mother: There must be something you can do for me when you have helped all of them.
Jesus: Of course there is. You have great faith. Your daughter will recover.

Jesus can do anything. We just have to t..... him. He c..... for parents and children.
