

Peter and Cornelius

Lesson 125

colour in brown, yellow and pink

God accepts people from every nation

These letters are numbered. Write them in number order for something to remember

Here is a list of animals and birds. Put a tick by the ones Peter thought were clean and a cross by those he thought were unclean. Deuteronomy 14 v 3-18 will help you.

How the news spread!

The map shows the Eastern Mediterranean region. Jerusalem is at the bottom, with Joppa and Caesarea to its north. The Phoenicia (or Phenice) coastline is shown to the east. Antioch is further north on the coast. Tarsus is marked on the coast to the north of Antioch. Cyprus is shown as an island to the west of the coast. Arrows are drawn to show the path of the gospel from Jerusalem to Antioch and then to Cyprus.

3. Believers from Cyprus went to ..... and spoke to .....

4. The church in Antioch grew and Barnabas went to ..... to fetch ..... The disciples were first called Christians at Antioch

1. In Caesarea Peter saw a vision to teach him that he should tell people about God whatever their .....

2. Believers in Jerusalem were persecuted after the death of ..... They took the message of Jesus with them.

Read
Acts 11 v 19-26
and draw arrows
to show how people travelled and brought the gospel
to new places

'Gentiles' means people who are not Jews. In the Bible 'Greeks' or 'Grecians' sometimes means the same thing.

Some readings for next week:

Sunday	Acts 10	verses 1-6
Monday		verses 7-14
Tuesday		verses 15-20
Wednesday		verses 21-23
Thursday		verses 24-29
Friday		verses 30-35
Saturday		verses 44-48

In verse 30, Cornelius says it was four days since he had the vision. As you read, count up the days and see if he was right. Remember, the Bible never makes mistakes. You can always trust it.

You will need:

1. Piece of white fabric about 25 cm square
2. 4 lengths of string
3. Scissors
4. Crayons

What to do:

1. Fasten a string to each corner of the fabric and tie the other ends together.
2. Cut out the animals and colour both sides.
3. Place the animals in the sheet.
4. You can add your own clean and unclean animals.
