To explain more about how to follow Jesus, Paul used examples from things which were in the world around him. When he wrote Ephesians he was in prison so the example of a soldier was literally in front of him! Paul explains that we need to be trained, equipped and prepared for our fight against sin in the same way that soldiers are trained, equipped and prepared.

Look at Ephesians 6:10-24. On the left hand side of the soldier, list the parts of armour and why they are useful. On the right hand side, list what Paul says we should be armed with, and give some examples.

Look in verse 11. What are we fighting?
 What are we NOT fighting?

Paul tells us we have to be like soldiers. Is it ever right to be a soldier or to fight?
 Can you think of any Bible references to back up the point you are making?

Paul's letter to churches

The nine books of the Bible that follow Acts are Paul's letters to churches (An epistle is a letter)

Read the first verse or two of each letter to check that this is right
 Now test yourself or each other about each place. Where is it? What happened there? How do you spell the name? And do you know anything Paul wrote in the letter? The bit in brackets might help you with that last question.
