

7 The world of work - Women at work

In the beginning

This subject cannot be separated entirely from home life, so it is important that we consider both aspects of God's teaching. Make some notes based on Genesis 2:18-21; Genesis 3:16: 1 Timothy 2:9-14.

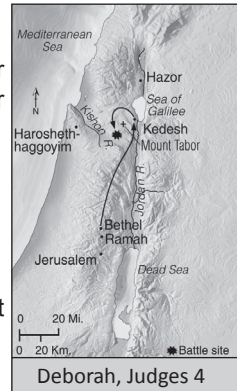

Women in Authority

Think of some women in Scripture who worked for a living, or were in positions of some authority - say as queens, judges or business women.

Look at Proverbs 31, and read verses 10 - 31. What would you learn about:

- Her position at home
- Her occupation and status
- Her relationship with her husband

What conclusions would you draw so far?

What opportunities might arise if a woman has a career?

Are there potential disadvantages?

What about both husband and wife going out to work?

If they have no children:

If they have children:

What about a wife working instead of her husband?

Working relationships

Why do you think God made men and women different?
