The Athenians loved to debate about religion and there were a lot of "gods" for them to talk about. The gods listed below are a mixture of the Greek and Roman names for the Gods. Use the number after each of the names to pick out one letter. The letters will tell you something about the real God who was unknown to the Athenians.

- Diana (2), Faunus (4), Athena (3), Aion (2), Mercury (1), The Twin Gods* (5), Hades (4), Falacer (3), Hestia (5), Venus (1), Zeus (1), Saturn (2), Dionysus (4), Aphrodite (6), Artemis (5), Apollo(6), Vulcan (1), Ares (3), Mars (2), Poseidon (8), Demeter (1), Hera (1), Alastor (3), Minerva (6), Heracles (7), Hypnos (5), Uranus (5), Triton (2), Bacchus (1), Neptune (2), Cupid (4), Proserpine (9), Gaea (1)

Did you Know?

Athens is one of the oldest cities in the world. It has been continuously inhabited for at least 5000 years.

Mars Hill (the Areopagus) where Paul spoke to the people is still there. The Parthenon was a temple to Athena built on the Acropolis. The ruins are still there to visit. It was made of white marble and the hill it was built on is marble as well.
