

I am an important teacher in the Sanhedrin.

Paul was my student.

I don't think we should fight against these Christians.

Who am I?

Can you work out who the characters are from the story of when Paul was arrested in Jerusalem?

I had Paul arrested because he seemed to be in danger.

I found out he was a Roman citizen.

I can't afford to have any trouble in my watch.

Who am I?

We were called to go to a riot in the city.

I had been sent to restore Paul's sight.

I speak Greek and Aramaic.

I was glad to see the brothers and sisters in Jerusalem again.

A man was being beaten by the mob.

I was afraid it would turn out to be a trick.

I was nearly killed by a mob.

When they saw us they stopped rioting.

Paul told everyone about what I had done.

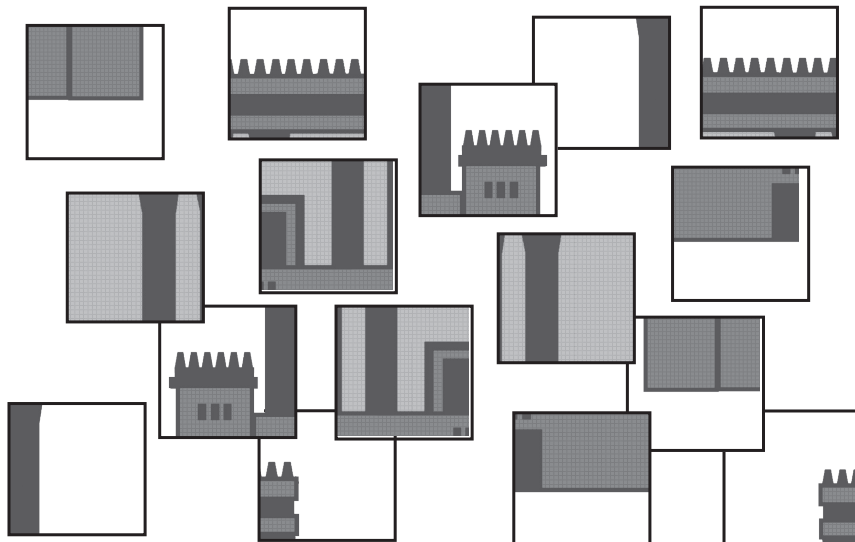

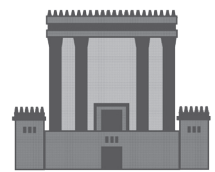

Who am I?

Who are we?

Who am I?

The temple which Paul went to was Herod's temple. Can you work out how the pieces of the picture below fit together to make a picture of Herod's temple? Write the letters from the grid by the pieces to show where each one goes.
