Centurions

Mark 15 v 39

The centurion who was standing, when he saw, he said "....."

Acts 10 v 1-8

Cornelius was a man. God heard his prayers and sent Peter to teach him about Jesus, and then he was (v48)

While Jesus was walking around in Israel, Roman soldiers would have been a common sight. Most of them would have believed in Roman gods and wouldn't have known about the Bible.

Apart from the centurion we have just learned about, here are two others who came to believe in the true God of the Bible, and in the Lord Jesus.

Some readings for next week:

Sunday	Luke 7	verses 1-5

Friday	Psalms 139	verses 1-4
Saturday		verses 8-12

What did the Jews think of the centurion?
What did the centurion think of himself?
What do these stories show about how near Jesus and Paul had to be to help someone?
What does the Psalm say about how near God is?
