

Genesis 3

For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive.

1 Corinthians 15:21,22

Do you think that right and wrong is just a matter of opinion?
Can you do what you want so long as you don't hurt anyone else?
How do you know whether something is right or wrong?

What is temptation?

Why did God allow Adam and Eve to be tempted?

Is it wrong to be tempted by something?

What does overcoming temptation mean? How can you learn to do it?

What is the difference between sin and temptation?

Where does our standard of right and wrong come from?

Does sin always have bad consequences?

What effect did sin have on Adam and Eve's relationship with God and with each other?

Would you have done better than them?

Did Adam know death would be the result of sin?

How does God describe their punishment of death?

What is death?

Who came under the sentence of death?

Do we all deserve it?

Does it please God that we die?

What is redemption?

When does God make his first promise of rescue from sin and death?

What does he promise?

Who does the promise look forward to?

Redemption

How can you put what you've learned into practise?

Think about these things:

Are you tempted by different things depending on who you are with?

What does that tell you about the people you should try to spend time with?

What should you do if people tempt you to do things which are wrong?

How did Jesus deal with being tempted?

If you're not sure about something, ask yourself:

What

Would

Jesus

Do?

Make a bookmark, badge or bracelet with the letters on as a reminder to ask the question.

Digging Deeper - Cain and Abel

Read Genesis 4:1-7 and answer these questions
